Three Hurt in Auto Crashes Over Weekend Result of Icy Roads

Arrests For Reckless Driving Follow 3 Accidents Near Lake Villa

Roads made slippery by melting snow and ice accounted for several accidents in the Antioch area over the week-end.

Mrs. Bernice Moran, 44, of Morley's subdivision, suffered a cut on the side of her face at 5:30 a.m. Tuesday when the car her husband, Leo Moran, was driving, skidded on ice near the entrance to the subdivision on North ave. at Lake Catherine, slapping a guy wire of a Public Service Co. pole and then hit a tree.

Mrs. Moran was taken to Victory Memorial hospital by the Antioch Rescue squad for treatment and care. Mr. Moran was unhurt.

Grace Manthie, 19, Chicago, suffered a cut left eyebrow and cut on the back of the neck Saturday when the car in which she was riding, driven by Robert R. Smith, Chicago, hit an icy spot on Rte. 21 a mile south of Loon Lake rd., skidded 294 feet and ended in a ditch at the east side of the road. Lake Villa Rescue squadman Jerry Awe gave Miss Manthie first aid at the scene.

Charged With Reckless Driving
Smith was scheduled to appear before Justice of the Peace Emil Lindvahl in Waukegan today to answer to a charge of reckless driving.

Ivy Holloway of Lambert, Miss., and rural Antioch, was charged with reckless driving Saturday when his car and another one (continued on page 5)

Gunman Abandons Car Here After Shooting Fox Lake Policeman

Chicago Car Thief Admits Shooting Mickey Ross When Detained

Antioch was made the base for a search for a car thief who early Tuesday morning shot and critically wounded Patrolman Mickey Ross of the Fox Lake police force on Rte. 12 in that village.

The gunman abandoned the stolen car, a red and green 1955 Mercury north of Antioch at Rock lake and with its discovery the search for him was started. Sheriff's police and plain clothesmen of the FBI were here.

Arrested later in the day in Chicago, Philip Matthew Doyle, 21, admitted he shot Ross after the patrolman had detained him at Fox Lake, radioed to the police station, and learned that the car he was driving was a stolen one.

Doyle said, he gained permission to get his handkerchief which was in the stolen car. Instead he obtained a pistol, returned and shot Ross.

One shot lodged in the right side and the second in the temple.

A taxicab driver investigated the parked car of the patrolman and reported Ross' injury to the police station. Chief Marius Olsen accompanied the first aid squad to the scene and had Ross removed to St. Therese hospital. Surgeons spent two hours in unsuccessful efforts to remove the slugs.

After six blood transfusions, Ross was still in a critical condition to date.

Rev. W. L. McInerney To Conduct Mission At St. Peter's Church

The Rev. Walter L. McInerney, O. S. C. of the Missionaries of the Holy Cross, from the University of Notre Dame will conduct a mission opening Dec. 9 and closing Dec. 16 at St. Peter's Church.

The Rev. Alfred J. Henderson, pastor of the parish, is sponsoring the mission.

Fr. McInerney preached missions and retreats in every large city in the United States from Boston to Los Angeles from 1940 to 1945. He has taught moral and dogmatic theology at the University of Notre Dame.

It is the wish of Fr. Henderson that every Catholic in the parish attend the mission and all others who are interested in the teaching.

The dinner will be served at the Pasadena Gardens north of Antioch at 8 p.m. with Art Smejkal's orchestra furnishing music for the dinner and for dancing afterward.

and practices of the Roman Catholic Church are invited.

A mission is a course of spiritual exercises conducted by especially trained missionaries. During these exercises, prayerful consideration is given to the great truths of eternity, to the duties and obligations of those who the church says would be followers of Christ.

The object of the mission, according to Fr. Henderson, is to help the fervent become more fervent, to bring souls back to God, to help the weak, to raise the fallen, to convert the sinner—in a word, to strengthen all in virtue and bring upon all the blessings of God. Above all, a mission is for those who are satisfied with themselves.

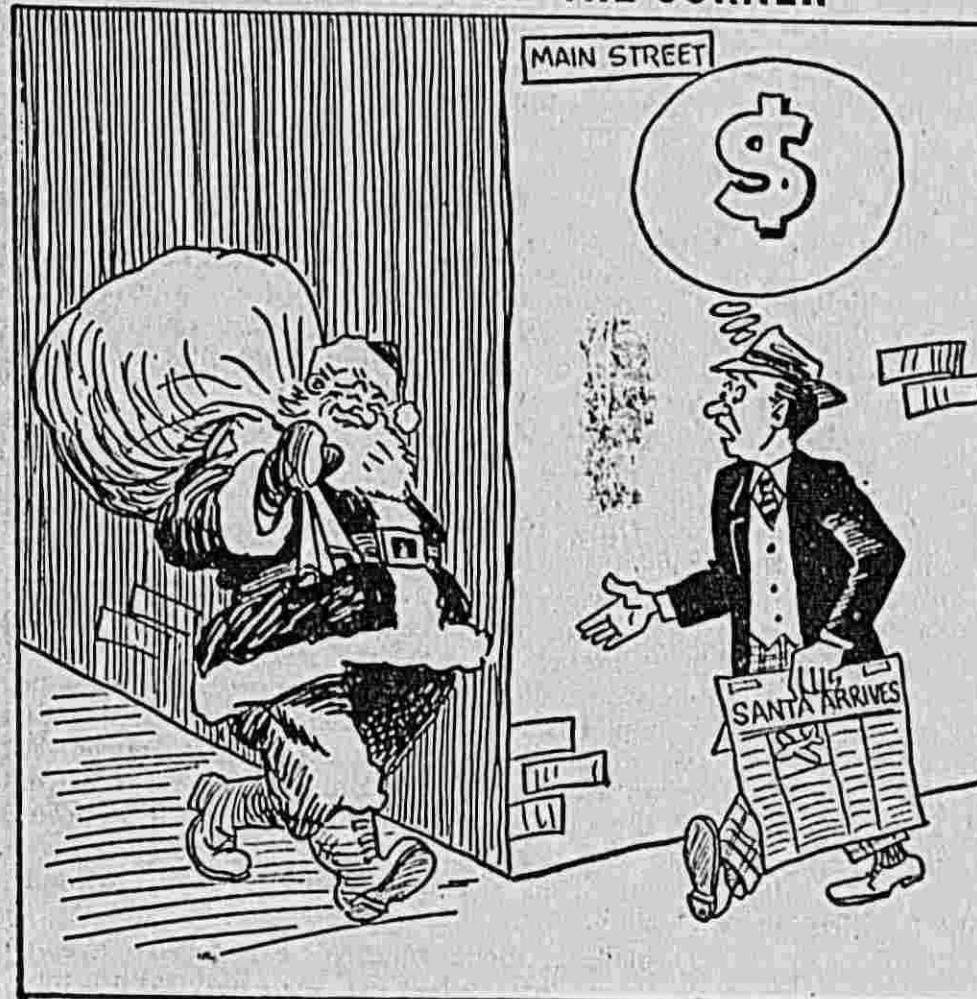

Fr. Henderson hopes that his parishioners will spread news about the mission and pray for it.

The services will commence at 7:45 p.m. Sunday, Dec. 9. The masses during the mission will be at 6:30, 7:30, and 8. The 6:30 and 8 o'clock masses will be followed by a short instruction.

Candy Cane Decorations for Antioch Streets Home Made at Low Cost Appear Professional

Rev. W. L. McInerney To Conduct Mission At St. Peter's Church

Through a do-it-yourself project, Antioch's business section has the best Christmas display in its history and at a minimum of expense.

Seventeen-foot imitation candy canes so real that one child wouldn't be satisfied until his father held him up to lick one of them, now grace the 14 light poles with red bows and lighted evergreen sprays.

Preston J. Reckers, Jr., Dick Harland and John Dupre fashioned the first one and then had the help of many other business men in completing the job. The canes are made of furnace pipe supplied by John Dupre with the curved handle made of tubing contributed by George Diamond.

The wooden end plugs were supplied by Howard Gaston, and cut out in his work shop at home.

Seventy-two yards of 54-inch white oilcloth and 36 yards of 54-inch red oil cloth cut into proper lengths at the H and T Co. shop, provided the covering. The canes were bolted to the posts through standards used for the old displays of last year.

Lasco's Greenhouse fashioned the evergreen sprays.

Helping in the job besides those mentioned were Joe Patrovsky, Robert Andrews, Dean Williams, and Harold Nelson.

Village employees put the decorations up on the poles in two days of hard work starting Sunday. They were Emil Ehrt, William Thiemann, Ray Hart, and Tod Mattheisse.

The project shows what imagination and team work can do in a village where there is community spirit.

Penny Social Friday Night

The Grass Lake P.T.A. will conduct a penny social at 8 p.m. Friday at the school building. The public is invited. In charge of the social are Mrs. Jane Powell, chairman, Mrs. Roy Frasier, and Mrs. Gerald Byrne. Profits from the event will be placed in the playground equipment fund.

Twenty-five Seek Office in Lindenhurst's First Election Scheduled for December 15

Barring no withdrawals, there will be 25 candidates for office at Lindenhurst in that new village's first election Saturday, Dec. 15.

When the deadline for filing came at 5 p.m. Monday, County Clerk Garfield Leaf listed four candidates for village president; two for police magistrate; three for clerk; and 16 seeking the six posts of trustee.

Candidates for clerk are all women and two of them are wives of men who are seeking other offices.

The 400 voters will cast their ballots at Engle's Real Estate office on Grand ave. as the only polling place between 8 a.m. and 5 p.m. two weeks from Saturday.

County officials said that the complete roster of candidates on Lindenhurst's first ballot included names of persons who had favored and opposed incorporation in the first instance. This they interpreted as an indication that no legal steps may be taken to delay incorporation of the new village.

Here are the candidates who had filed petitions of nomination before

Escort Line of Floats To Bring Santa Claus To Antioch Saturday

Honored Guest Will Greet Children at Rescue Squad Building

The Christmas season will be ushered into Antioch Saturday with the appearance of Santa Claus in a big parade.

With bands leading the way, a line of approximately 15 gaily colored floats will slowly move through the business section of the village, each one vying for the attention of the crowd, and the last one carrying old St. Nicholas himself, fresh from the North Pole.

The parade will form at Rte. 59 and 173 at 10 a.m. and promptly at 10:30 will move up Lake St. to Main St., north on Main St. to Orchard St., and then west to place of beginning.

The parade will move quite slowly, parade chairman John Skalak said.

"This will give the children opportunity to see everything clearly and give a three-member committee of judges opportunity to select the best for prizes."

To Receive Key of Village

The Santa Claus float will leave the parade at Broadway and appear in front of the Antioch Rescue Squad building where he will be presented the keys of the village by Miss Christmas Carol representing the boys and girls of the Antioch area.

Then Santa will leave his sleigh and enter the Rescue Squad building where he will interview boys and girls and take their orders for Christmas presents. He will present each a favor.

The jolly old fellow will remain at the reception room until 5:30 p.m. when he has an appointment elsewhere.

Streets Are Decorated

Should the temperature be below 40 degrees it will be necessary to omit the bands. Bandsmen said their instruments would freeze at

TWO KINDS OF WORLD TRADE

Just about everybody agrees that international trade is a good and necessary thing, and that the world in general needs more of it. Trade can build and strengthen the economies of nations, and improve the living standards of their peoples. Of at least equal importance, it can lead to a better understanding and a climate of friendliness between nations—which is certainly something this chaotic world can use.

But there are some important qualifications that must be added. One is that trade should be a two-way street—those who want to sell must also be willing to buy. Another is that our efforts should be given to stimulating trade with our friends, not our enemies.

The case of Poland is in point—a country which, despite its current troubles with the Soviet Union, has a Communist, anti-Western government. During the first eight months of this year Poland exported 18,200,000 pounds of canned pork, mostly ham, to the United States. That marked an increase of more than 3 million pounds over the same period in 1955. In return, Poland 'got' dollars, which every Communist as well as non-Communist country urgently wants. What Poland does with those dollars seems to be something of a mystery. One thing is sure—she does not buy American agricultural products with them.

By contrast, three of our European friends—Denmark, Germany and Holland—sell canned pork here and they too get dollars in return. But they follow the two-way street principle, and are substantial purchasers of American products, including meat and animal products.

We need more of the kind of trade that benefits us and the rest of the free world—and less of the other kind.

POLITICAL DEMAGOGUERY

The Pacific Northwest is and long has been a center of the public-versus-private electric power fight. Some time ago, the Columbia Empire Industries, Inc.—a nonpartisan, nonpolitical group whose sole interest is the economic welfare and progress of the region—appointed a hydroelectric committee. That committee, after lengthy study, has now made its report, and some of the conclusions reached apply to sound power policy everywhere.

It said "all sources of capital" available should be used for needed new power development, and that "local organizations and private industry must be encouraged to undertake as many power projects as possible." Then it made this all-important statement: "This committee feels that it is unfortunate for the over-all economic benefit of the region that political groups have caused great confusion in the minds of many of our citizens. The use of such a phrase as 'give-away' is political demagoguery. No public facility can be given away."

The phony "give-away" issue has been manufactured by groups which want a tax-subsidized federal power monopoly, and are perfectly willing, through their blockading tactics, to bring on severe power shortages if they can't have their way.

Finally, what the Columbia Empire Industries committee urges is, to all intents and purposes, the partnership plan of hydro-electric development, in which the federal government, local government, and private enterprise all play roles as needed. This is one way to get maximum results in the quickest possible time—and at the least cost to the taxpayers.

FOR $210 A YEAR

How much does medical care cost the average American family? That question, asked at random, would provoke a wide gamut of answers. A good many people, who haven't had an opportunity to get the facts, obviously believe that this cost is very heavy.

The Health Information Foundation of New York City has looked into the matter. It found that the average family medical bill runs to about $210 a year. Only 16 per cent of families spend more than $400.

The average family, as we all know, spends substantially larger sums for luxuries and entertainment and in other ways that are fun but not essential. And today's medical care dollar, due to medical progress, brings back a tremendous return. New drugs and techniques produce cures where cures were rare or impossible in past times. They have greatly reduced the time that people must spend recuperating from illness. It's a real saving when a man can return to his work in a matter of days, instead of weeks or months.

Complaints about medical care costs are easy enough to understand—they are inevitable, human nature being what it is. No one likes to go to the doctor—we go only when we must. We'd much rather spend the money on all manner of other things. That attitude is universal. But it should not be allowed to warp the truth—and to blow up the medical care financial problem out of all semblance of reality.

fic situation, with its rising toll, Mr. Dearborn said a year-round "Back the Attack on Traffic Accidents" campaign, being launched this December, will continue through 1957. The purpose of the campaign is to encourage public officials to step up the attack and to stimulate citizens to back the attack on traffic accidents.

During December campaign emphasis will be on speed, drinking drivers and pedestrians, night driving and pedestrian hazards.

"Back the Attack On Traffic Accidents" Is Emergency Safety Move

Are you a hurricane driver? You are if you drive 75 miles an hour or more, the National Safety Council said today.

For at that pace, warned the Council, you can destroy yourself and anything in your path as quickly as a hurricane.

"The U. S. weather bureau considers winds of 75 miles and over hurricane proportion," said Ned H. Dearborn, president of the Council, "and motorists should remember that a car driven at the same speed is propelled with the same destructive force."

Because of the emergency traf-

Speed was a large factor last year in the 609 Christmas traffic deaths, the Council said. Driving too fast for conditions or in excess of the speed limit was a factor in 85 per cent of the fatal accidents, compared with an annual average of 35 per cent.

At high speed the human body becomes increasingly vulnerable, the Council said. If an accident occurs at 60 miles an hour or more the victim is eight times more likely to die than if he had been injured in an accident at 20 miles an hour.

"Speed not only increases your chances of having an accident—it decreases your chances of coming out alive if you do have one," said Mr. Dearborn.

To determine a safe speed, the Council said, drivers must take into consideration:

1. Weather and visibility. Fog, rain, snow, bright sunlight, or darkness are caution signs that should be heeded.

2. Mechanical factors. Engine power, ability to hold the road, and efficiency of all mechanical parts have a definite bearing on selection of a safe speed.

3. Physical factors. Whether a road is rough, smooth, hilly, flat curving or straight are considerations that should influence speed.

4. Personal factors. The driver's physical and mental condition and the speed at which he can safely control his car are important factors.

5. Traffic conditions. Drivers

Looks modern...
Cooks modern

Today's electric ranges are modern in every way!

Today's trend, as you know, is to electricity—in the kitchen and in every phase of modern living.

And perhaps nothing mirrors this trend better than today's electric ranges. They not only look modern, they cook modern.

Electric surface units, for example, are self-cleaning and leave no smudge on pots or pans. Easy to control because you get exactly the heat you want every time. No guesswork.

You can do every kind of cooking automatically—completely automatically—on a modern electric range: boil, bake, roast, broil, even deep fat fry foods. Accurate controls mean you never have to worry about temperature fluctuation. (You'll notice your electric oven holds the heat nice and even, thanks to insulation on all 6 sides.)

No matter which electric range you choose, you can be sure it will be new—now and for many, many years to come. Learn how little it takes to own the one you want by visiting your electric appliance dealer now.

Big Saving—we pay part of your range installation cost. Need modern wiring to install your electric range? We share the cost with qualified home owners in 1, 2 and 3-family dwellings. This can cut your expense by about half.

And you get more than a money saving. The modern wiring that goes with your installation helps improve your TV picture, brightens lights, makes everything electrical work better. You can also install a 240-volt electric dryer, water heater or air conditioner quickly and cheaply. The Share-the-Cost Plan is available on terms up to 2 years.

Health Talk

IS YOUR HOME SAFE?

Did you know that more accidents occur in the home than anywhere else? Since most accidents are preventable, what have you done to cut down the heavy toll of accidental deaths and injury that occur annually, the Educational Committee of the Illinois State Medical Society asks in HEALTH TALK.

Your home should be a haven for comfort and happiness, but heedlessly you ignore the numerous precautionary measures to keep it so. For example, have you checked your wiring? Faulty electric wiring can cause fires and if touched by an elderly person with a heart affliction may prove fatal.

Falls lead the list of accidents in the home. They stem from rickety guard rails, unstable stairs, throw rugs on highly waxed floors, unsteady ladders and chairs, stairways cluttered with tops, dust cloths, brushes and what not, as well as slipping in a gleaming bath tub without a protective rubber non-skid mat.

The medicine chest should be a storehouse for useful aids, but are you careless with its contents? Do you leave medications lying about within easy reach of children? Do you reach for a bottle or box of medication without turning on the light to read the label, or do you grope in the dark for what you think is the right one? And do you save medicines no longer required instead of discarding them?

What about electric appliances in the bathroom? Are you sure they can't be reached from the basin or the tub? Please be sure, because again severe burns may result, and even death by electrical shock.

What about the kitchen? Do you turn pot handles in so they can't be bumped or pulled by children? Severe burns may result from the hot contents of an overturned utensil. If your floor so highly polished that you invite a fall?

Do you smoke in bed? If you do, stop this bad habit which places your own life in jeopardy as well as those of your loved ones and other tenants in the building. Another way to prevent a fire is to store oily rags in a covered metal container to obviate spontaneous combustion.

How about your shelves? Do you store things on top of each other? If you do, you may be the victim of a severe thump on the head. Cans, jars and bottles have a way of toppling when a closet door is opened.

Are disinfectants, detergents and insecticides stored in a utility closet inaccessible to curious little hands? Caustics, such as lye, have been responsible for numerous tragedies to tiny tots.

Planning to paint the baby's crib? Be sure the substance you use is free from lead. This will prevent accidental poisoning should baby decide to lick the paint.

These are just a few reminders to help you keep your home safe. Perhaps thus far your home has been free of accidents, but there is always a first time. And it is better to prevent one than to be remorseful once it occurs.

Take a look at industry's record. Less accidents occur at work than in the home because of the impetus placed on safety factors. The aim is production free from accident. So make your home safe. Help your physician in his fight to reduce the incidence of disease by doing your part to curb accidents in the home, thereby making it truly a haven of good health, comfort and happiness.

Antioch Nips Richmond Seeks Dundee's Scalp And Wauconda's Also

Antioch High School switched over to the victory track last week by defeating Richmond in a non-conference game here Wednesday evening 66 to 45.

The Sequoits hit their stride which they hope to maintain tomorrow evening when they play their first conference game of the season at Wauconda. Then they will return home for a Saturday night game with Dundee.

The frosh-soph team will play both preliminaries.

Neither opponent will be easy to beat, although Dundee was defeated last week by Barrington 61 to 45. Dundee's star of last year, Puff-puff, is still on the team and may spell trouble for the Sequoits.

Antioch bounced back from the defeat handed her by Libertyville and by an effective zone defense limited Richmond to 14 field goals and the short end of the 64-45 score.

Gerry Huml and Art Hanke led the Antioch scoring with 18 points each while Wayne Herbst was next with 12 points. Hanke was outstanding with his spirited rebounding and Tommy Gudeeon played an aggressive floor game.

For Richmond, Jim Christiansen was high point man with 18 points.

The Sequoits led at the quarter 16-11, and 27-17 at half time. At the third quarter the score was 42 to 34 and in the final eight minutes Antioch scored 18 points to Richmond's 10.

Coach Larry Leon said that the team still is a little sluggish and it will take a few games for the quintet to get working together. Hanke, Gudeeon and Christiansen are playing their first varsity ball and while they are gradually synchronizing their efforts with the veterans their work has not yet reached expectations. Frank Ferdon, a guard, and Bob Poulsen, forward or guard may get a chance to start Friday's game.

In the preliminary last week the Antioch Soph-Frosh team beat the Richmond underclassmen 39 to 27. The score at the end of the first quarter was 20 to 0 in Antioch's favor. Coach Warren Polley then used substitutes.

The summary follows:

Antioch (60)

Paper Notes Balloon Flight
An article in the Aurora Beacon News on Nov. 20, accompanied by a picture of Aurora Township Republican Party officials tells of the finding of a Stratton poster flown by toy balloon to Antioch and picked up here within a few hours by Henry Pape. The fact previously was reported by this newspaper. Pape followed instructions in notifying the senders who thought it remarkable that the balloon had traveled the 75 miles in so short a time. Robert Dunn, formerly of Antioch sent the News the clipping from the Aurora paper.

Mailing of license plates applied for by mail will begin at the same time, he said.

The deadline for displaying 1957 plates on vehicles will be no later than February 15, Secretary Carpenter said. This means, he added, motorists should have their mail applications in the Springfield office by February 1 in order to be sure their plates will reach them in time to meet the deadline.

"Announcing the deadline now gives applicants 60 days to take care of this obligation to the State of Illinois, which should surely be ample time to avoid any delinquency," Mr. Carpenter said.

WINTER DRIVING TIPS

You're a smart motorist—so your car has been serviced for winter. Even so, if we get extreme cold, you may find starting hard. Here are some tips from Carol Lane for taking the edge off winter nights.

If you keep your car in a garage stretch a rope across the end of the garage and hang a blanket over it. Then, when you put the car away at night, snug the front end up to the blanket. This preserves some of the heat left in the motor and keeps the fan from scooping up icy early morning air and blowing it into the motor.

If you ever have to leave your car outside all night, you can still cut down warm-up time. Save a large shopping bag, fold it flat and slip it down inside the hood between grill and radiator. To secure the bag, run a cord through one end of it, and tie the cord to the radiator cap. (This also prevents your radiator from freezing up while you're driving through heavy snow.)

To grind cranberries easily with no spattering juice freeze them first, then put them through the grinder while still frozen, suggests Successful Farming magazine in the December issue. If used in a gelatin salad, the frozen ground cranberries help set the gelatin quickly.

MRS. APPLEBY SPEAKER AT GARDEN CLUB MEETING

The Antioch Garden Club was very fortunate in having an outstanding arranger of dried materials as its guest speaker at its meeting on Monday, Nov. 26. Mrs. C. Appleby of Lake Villa discussed the type of materials, their treatment, and effective ways to combine them; and in addition showed beautiful examples of different arrangements to fit the theme of the arrangement and the types of containers available.

Mrs. Appleby will assist Garden Club members at their workshop sessions in January and February, and great enthusiasm was shown for this type of work after the Christmas holidays.

The meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Dudley Kennedy, with Mrs. John Wagner serving as co-hostess.

HUNTER HOLSTEIN BULL IS GOLD MEDAL SIRE

Brattleboro, Vt.—Ravenglen Triune Prince 1050848, owned by Robert L. Hunter, Ravenglen Dairy Farm, Antioch, Illinois, has been designated a Gold Medal Sire—the highest recognition a Holstein sire can receive—by the Holstein-Friesian Association of America.

Admittance to the super-select Gold Medal Sire circle is limited to those Holstein bulls with daughters meeting exceptionally high standards of both milk production and body conformation.

Ten of Ravenglen Triune Prince's daughters have completed official production records averaging 13,618 lbs. of milk and 510 lbs. of butterfat. This represents an increase of 1,376 lbs. of milk and 55 lbs. of butterfat over the average production level of their dams.

He gained the paralleling Silver Medal Type award in 1955. Of his 22 daughters officially classified for type at that time, two scored Very Good, the second highest rating attainable. Average score for all classified daughters was 81.0.

driven by Don Collins, Lake Villa, collided on Rte. 21 at the Soo Line bridge at Lake Villa.

Collins' car was in pursuit of Holloway's, sheriff's deputies said, and the collision occurred when the Holloway car hit an icy spot and skidded into a barricade on the east side of the bridge. Holloway was scheduled to appear in a justice of the peace court yesterday.

Two Crashes at Same Spot
In another accident at the same spot and about the same time, a car driven by Robert Burda, 16, rural Lake Villa, skidded and went 250 feet before hitting the same barricade. He too, was charged with reckless driving and was scheduled to appear in a JP court yesterday.

Susan Bielefeld, 16, Milwaukee, was treated by an Antioch physician for injuries after the car driven by her sister, Nancy, 22, collided with cars operated by Lee Gerricke, 27, Frankfort, and Carl Ingelman, 34, Oak Park, on Rte. 45 south of Rte. 173 Sunday.

Don't Let Fire Ruin Your Christmas

One of the many wonderful Christmas traditions is decorating the home, church, and school with holiday finery. However, this tradition can be the starting place for a fire that could ruin your Christmas holidays. So when planning your decorations, plan for safety. Always buy a fresh Christmas tree, and then keep it in a cold place until you're ready to set it up, advises the December issue of Successful Farming magazine. Don't try to flame-proof your tree with chemical solutions. Keep the tree away from any source of heat, such as the fireplace, radiators, and television sets.

It's a good idea to have the switch for turning the tree lights on and off away from the tree, and always turn the lights off when no one is in the room. Be sure the metallic icicles do not touch any of the light sockets, and keep electrical toys or trains away from the tree since a flying spark could send it up in flames. Dispose of the tree as soon as the needles start to drop off.

Each year there are more new and varied decorations, so you shouldn't have any trouble finding something you like that is marked flame-proof and nonflammable. It doesn't cost any more to buy flame-resistant crepe paper or other decorative materials, so keep looking until you see the label, advises the magazine.

If you're decorating a church or school for a party, take the decorations down as soon as the party is over. Your local fire department will be glad to check your church or school decorations to see that there is no immediate danger.

One of the first places where fire can break out is the wiring. Before you string lights on the tree, check the cords for frayed spots. If your old string of lights is in bad condition, replace it with a string that has the Underwriters' Laboratories seal, says the publication.

Avoid overloading circuits and running extension cords across a room. Never place a flexible extension cord under the rug, for the underside of the rug will rub off the protective covering on wires. Do not use indoor strings of lights outside. Outside lighting requires waterproof electric cords and sockets, and bulbs that will not crack when wet, the magazine says.

Experts Advise on Care of Home Appliances

Take it from the men who should know, your appliance servicemen, periodical cleaning and care will pay dividends in better, longer and more efficient service of appliances in the home.

This sums up the advice offered by several Northern Illinois Gas Company servicemen in a recent article appearing in the FLAME, the utility's employee publication.

"Manufacturers of gas appliances try their best to produce safe, efficient, convenient, durable appliances," the FLAME stated, "but like all man-made equipment, gas appliances need a little home care, too, if they are to continue to operate efficiently and satisfactorily."

Northern Illinois Gas Company servicemen agreed that most appliance service calls are the result of unintentional neglect which can be remedied by periodic cleaning to assure the most efficient service.

Accumulation of deposits from the water inside the water heater tank, for example, can cause corrosion which leads to the inefficient operation of the unit. The gas company experts advise draining about a gallon of water from the bottom of the tank periodically to remove deposits, thus prolonging the life and assuring more efficient operation of the water heater.

Periodic cleaning of gas ranges, too, is a simple routine housewives should adopt, the experts say, to keep the appliance at the peak efficiency built into it by the manufacturers.

Gas dryers operate correctly and more efficiently, the gas company say, if the lint trap is cleaned after each use of the dryer—a simple operation that takes only a few seconds.

An incinerator, the gas company experts point out, requires only infrequent emptying of the ash pan, and for this reason it is sometimes neglected. Overloading an incinerator lessens efficiency of the appliance, the experts add. Incinerator ashes, incidentally, are prized by many gardeners as excellent fertilizer.

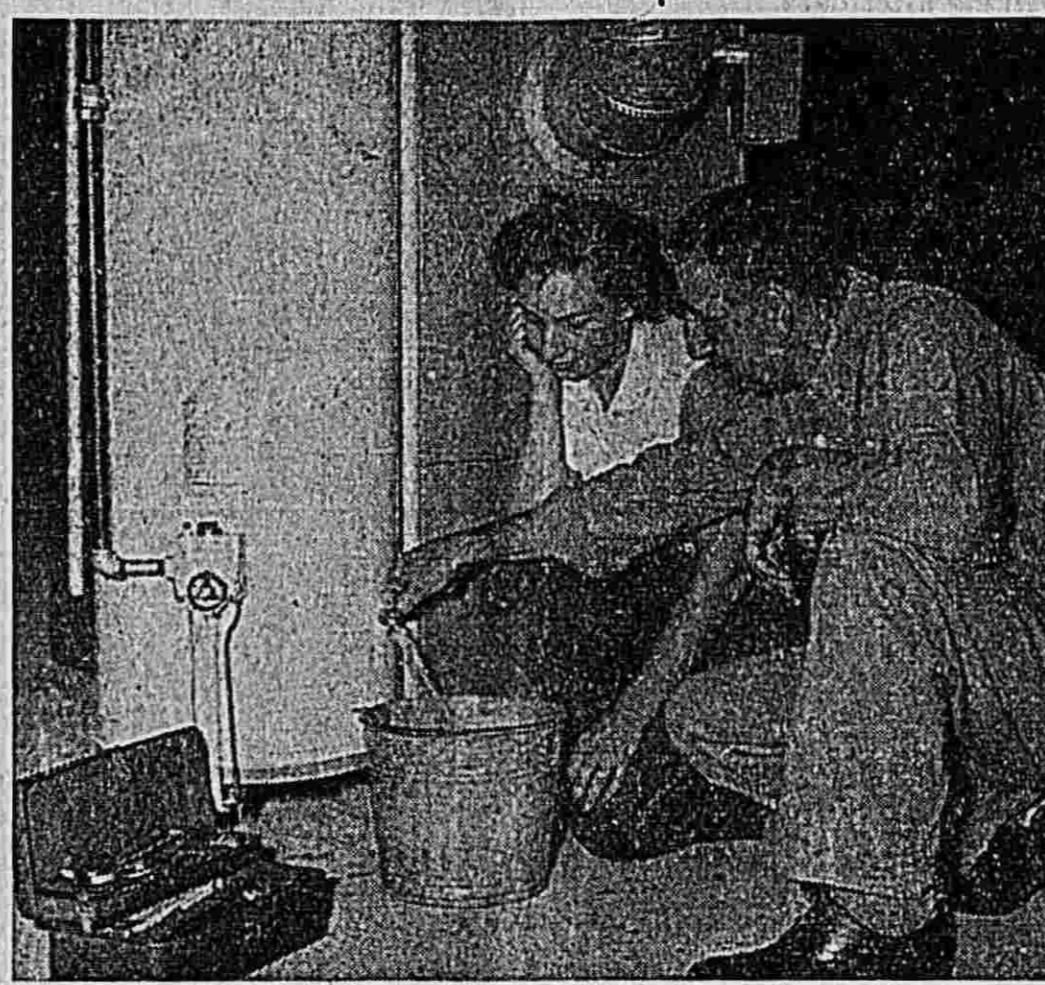

Those who heat their homes with gas should heed the experts' advice that if the furnace has a humidifying pan it should be kept clean of lime deposits. Oil filters should be cleaned several times a year by gently tapping the filter on a newspaper. It is recommended that filters probably should be replaced once a year to attain maximum efficiency for the heating unit.

Condition of the flue pipe should be checked for rust periodically, too.

Northern Illinois Gas servicemen

Northern Illinois Gas Company appliance serviceman Don Campbell (Aurora) agrees with his fellow experts that most gas range service calls result from food spilled over into the burner parts. He shows customer how easy it is to remove burners from a modern gas range for periodic cleaning — a "must" to obtain the top-rated efficiency built in to the appliance.

Draining off about a gallon of water periodically from the bottom of a water heater will minimize accumulation of deposits inside the tank and will prolong the life of the unit. Northern Illinois Gas Company appliance serviceman Marty Leggero (Joliet) tells customer. The gas company's appliance servicemen agree that many service calls could be eliminated by systematic "home care" by customers.

agreed, and the fan motor should be oiled once or twice during the heating season. Necessary draft in the chimney can be detected by feeling the suction around the draft hood; a clogged chimney affords little suction and should be cleaned as soon as possible.

For cleaning small oilways in crankshafts, gas lines, or other similar jobs, use an electric shaver cleaning brush, advises Successful Farming magazine in the December issue. Solder the brush handle to the end of a suitable length of stiff wire.

Food Sense—Not Nonsense

Going My Way To A Good Breakfast?

Numerous routes lead to good breakfasts and no one way is the only way. It is the destination that counts—a breakfast that insures each individual a fair share of the needed nutrients for the day.

It is high time for the defense of those who do not follow beaten paths in their choices of good breakfasts, choices which often prove to be excellent, nutrition-wise. Traveling their independent ways are the children who like peanut butter or toasted cheese sandwiches for breakfast. On a different route are the people who prefer a bowl of soup or chowder to start the day. There is nothing so revolutionary about these breakfasts. Europeans long have had cereal and soup for the first meal of the day.

Any of these breakfasts can meet acceptable nutrition standards if they include a vitamin C-rich fruit, extra enriched toast or bread for energy and B vitamins, plus milk for children. In the sandwich meal, cheese and peanut butter are excellent protein foods. Cream soups are avenues for introducing milk for those who do not like to drink it.

Bread will be the basis of many of these meals. Scientists have shown that the cereal breakfast and the popular bacon 'n egg meal are, calorie for calorie, equally efficient. The protein of bread, or cereal, stays off hunger and prolongs efficiency. The day's protein needs are best utilized if some protein food is eaten at each meal.

Whichever route is chosen, a good breakfast will be the destination if it follows the way of: A vitamin C-rich food such as a citrus fruit; protein-rich food such as eggs, meat, bread and milk, or cereal and milk. Sandwiches of cheese or peanut butter are protein-rich foods, too. Additional servings of enriched toast belong in the pattern for sufficient energy and B vitamins.

Ind. and Robert Finkel from Champaign, Ill., were home for Thanksgiving and the week-end. The Oscar Finkel family were Saturday evening dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Payne at Glenview.

M. and Mrs. George Handley and daughter, Anne, from rural Kenosha, and their aunt, Mrs. Lillian Robbins of Chicago were Thursday afternoon callers at the William Gerber and Eddie Van Patten homes.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Irish entertained on Thanksgiving day Mrs. Bernice Sitter and her brother, Ralph Canot, Mr. and Mrs. William Hensen and family of Antioch, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Irish and family of Volo and Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Elsbury and family of Gurnee.

Other guests were Mr. and Mrs. Carl Leatherbury of Antioch and Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Lange and children and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Behrens and baby son of Hebron. There were thirteen adults and 13 children present and they celebrated the 13th birthday of John Lange on Nov. 22.

WEEKLY SUMMARY CHICAGO
MARKETS NOV. 28-DEC. 1

Chicago—Momentary price bulges appear in metropolitan Chicago markets this week to push key food items higher, although normal seasonal influences are expected to prevent any real increase in food costs during the long winter pull.

Some current surveys indicate many people expect new rounds of increases in cost-of-living items. Despite this, the University of Illinois consumer service holds what may be a minority position, at least regarding foods that many current wholesale jumps are temporary and will fall back quickly to the lower winter trend predicted on the basis of total supplies.

Wholesale increases, reflecting somewhat at retail this week, are caused by: (1) The short holiday weeks which caused a drop in the pipeline levels of supplies, (2) cold weather demand for key meat items, and (3) freezing temperatures that threaten tender southern grown produce.

Influences that will tend to reverse the above pressures soon include: (1) A full business week to increase livestock receipts, (2) poultry supplies (including heavy storage stocks) remain at tremendous levels, (3) eggs are abundant and continue little affected by heavy government stabilization purchases (although reacting upward slightly this week on better consumer demand), and (4) although weather is a definite pressure builder under many fresh vegetables, record storage stocks exist for frozen and canned substitutes.

The U. of I. that looks weekly at the wholesale-retail scene in this area, is not particularly disturbed as it reports for the week ending Dec. 1:

Beef, pork and lamb prices trend steady to mostly higher at wholesale, with some reflection at retail of the upward movement. Veal is steady on low demand. Poultry continues to hold at low levels because of heavy supplies. Fresh salads become more expensive as freezing weather threatens Florida vegetables. Bananas are scarce and high priced. Tomatoes, peppers, cucumbers and green beans particularly are up. Eggs jump in price on increased consumer demand.

Market values singled out as warranting consumer attention this week include: Beef—Blade cut pot roast, sirloin steaks; Pork—fresh Boston, loin roasts; Lamb—shoulder roasts, chops. In fresh fruits and vegetables, check apples, pears, grapes, grapefruit, potatoes, squash, cabbage and onions as budget balancers. Frozen orange concentrate keynotes top values in frozen and canned food lines. Other U. of I. measurements of consensus situations for this week are indicated as follows:

Beef—Smallest price gains are noted for beef. Pot roast holds value lead despite a slight increase to 43c. Round bone, 55c; steaks, 89c; sirloin, 98c; porterhouse, 79c round, 69c Swiss. Rib roasts are mostly 89c for better quality, rib steaks, 70c. Hamburger, 43c.

Pork—Considered an alternative for beef, pork quotes in widest ranges at all market levels. In order of market value: fresh Boston butts, 39-49c; rib end loin roasts 29-39c; meatier loin end portions 39-49c; center cut chops 75c; end cut chops 39c; pork steaks mostly 49c but some quoting 39c. Liver 29c and spare ribs 39c; Bacon is typical of upward trending processed pork, good quality competitive brands quoting 45c, top brands 57c. Picnics are higher at 35c, smoked butts little changed at 59c. Quoting widely as usual, ready cooked hams show 57c for butt portions, 53c for whole or shank half. Center sliced ham quotes often 98c. Bulk sausage holds low at 29c.

Lamb—A little higher at wholesale, but economy shoulder roasts quote 39c, shoulder chops 49c, with leg roasts seldom below 59c.

Poultry—Turkeys continue at bargain levels of last week, ranging by size 39-49c. Fryers again slipped at wholesale, restoring 35c tags at retail. Stewing hens continue low 39c although supplies are seasonally shorter. Greater demand for eggs edged prices up, medium size grade A mixed moving to 41c, large sized 55c.

Produce—Most fresh fruits and vegetables are quoting stronger. Potatoes are a typical penny per pepper higher but still a value buy—Idaho bakers, 10 lbs. 59c; better quality reds, 10 lbs. 49c. Tomatoes also gain, quoting lowest 39c lb. Lettuce, short supplied is priced most often at 33c head. Higher, too, are green beans, cucumbers, peppers and other Florida-frosted items. Steady prices show on cauliflower 29c head, broccoli 19c bunch; midwest cabbage, 5c lb.

California celery 19c stalk, onions,

Higher-priced bananas, typically 21c lb, keynote changes in the fruit situation. Even at slightly higher prices, apples and better values, midwest McIntosh, Delicious, and Jonathans reading 15c lb. Better supplied pears quote 2 lbs. 29c for D'Anjou. Grapes creep upward, popular Emperors quoting 29c lb. More grapefruit is available, mostly in small 80's at 6c ea. Smaller sized fresh oranges, noted mostly at 39c doz, are not of peak maturity or quality as yet.

can take the first step toward a stronger, more profitable future...

building a career in an industry which has grown 3 times faster than any other in America...

When Abbott Laboratories opens its new chemical manufacturing building in April, 1957, there will have to be available—at once—49 men who have already been thoroughly trained; men who can move in and start the wheels turning. These 49 men must be chosen now, so that they can enter a regular training program—a program which will let them develop their own abilities and advance to better jobs as quickly as their talent and intelligence allow.

These men should have some mechanical ability, but they do not have to be experienced in chemical manufacturing. Abbott will train them soundly and carefully for each new job.

And they'll find that working with Abbott has many advantages:

- a sound, fair salary program with regular merit review
- steady employment without the danger of layoffs
- friendly, clean, pleasant surroundings in which to work
- pension plan, group life, medical care insurance
- a company cafeteria serving tasty, low-cost meals
- paid vacations
- a well-rounded program of employee activities

BUT THESE NEW JOBS—
LIKE ALL JOBS AT ABBOTT—
OFFER IMPORTANT EXTRA BENEFITS:

- medical payments each time a worker, his wife or children visit a doctor's office, or the doctor calls at the house
- not six but nine paid holidays every year, three of which, in effect, can be taken whenever the employee wishes
- a chance to save under the Employee Savings Plan which pays a full 5% interest

These 49 men will begin working at a variety of jobs in chemical manufacturing.

At 8:15 A.M. next Monday, December 3, the Personnel Office of Abbott Laboratories in North Chicago will begin to select applicants. At that time, 49 men have a chance to build a sound, assured future with a major member of the chemical industry, an industry which has grown three times faster than any other in America.

TWO GIRLS, A CHEVY AND A RECORD!

A meaningful achievement in automobile performance

Most automobile performance records are pretty difficult to relate to the kind of day-in, day-out driving most of us do. Running at safe and legal speeds, a '57 Chevrolet recently chalked up an important new coast-to-coast record on the road. And the way it set this record is even more important than the record itself!

A new '57 Chevrolet recently proved it has the qualities most people look for in a car—and proved it on the roads you travel. It set a new record of less than 57 hours for the run from New York to Los Angeles (certified by NASCAR). It was a strictly stock, V8-powered Chevy. It was driven by two young ladies.

When you consider that all the driving was done by 98-pound Betty Skelton and her friend Caroline Russ, the true significance of this record run becomes apparent. It's a tribute to Chevrolet's great-hearted V8 engine and solid road-worthiness that it could travel day and night for 2,913 miles at safe and legal speeds—and better the existing record for the trip by more than three hours. And when a pair of young ladies step into a car and drive it round the clock to a new transcontinental record, you know that car is easy to drive. Come try a Chevy.

Styled long and low
—with lots of GO!

(Try the instant response of Buick's New Dynaflow*)

We'll admit it quite frankly.

"New" is a word that's used a lot. But seldom has it meant so much that's fresh and different and better-than-before—as here in the newest Buick yet.

Take the new styling, because that's obvious at a glance. To get it so sweepingly low, the engineers started from the bottom, with a brand-new type of chassis.

It's an ingenious "nested" chassis that reduced car height as much as 3.4 inches, giving new lowness and raciness—without reducing road clearance or room.

It's a massive I-beam, X-frame chassis that's stronger and sturdier—and permits a new low center of gravity for far surer, far safer roadability.

That's the picture on style, beauty and brawn in every '57 Buick.

But no such picture can give you the feel of this new instant go.

Only when you take the wheel can you appreciate the new era of motoring pleasure and ease and safety brought about by Buick's new power-pitch response.

It's instant response—response set off by the hair-trigger action of a new 364-cubic-inch engine and the full-range flexibility of a new Variable Pitch Dynaflow.

It's response so eager, this Buick seems to anticipate your every command. Power flashes to the rear wheels so quickly and smoothly in "Drive," that the need for "Low" has virtually been eliminated. Even Dynaflow's famous switch of the pitch is seldom needed.

Come try it. Come see and feel the tremendous difference the newest Buick yet can make in your driving enjoyment.

*New Advanced Variable Pitch Dynaflow is the only Dynaflow Buick built today. It is standard on Roadmaster, Super and Century—optional at modest extra cost on the Special.

MOTHER WRITES OF HER NINE-YEAR-OLD DAUGHTER'S FIGHT AGAINST CANCER

Cancer sometimes hits children. In Reader's Digest for December, a young mother reveals the suffering and heroism involved when her nine-year-old daughter was stricken. Her narrative, addressed to the dead girl, is entitled "The Story of Gabrielle," and is the condensation of a book to be published by the World Publishing Co. The author writes under her maiden name of Catherine Gabrielson.

Shortly before Christmas, Gabrielle, a "long-legged, sun-kissed little girl with long, straight, sun-bleached hair," became mysteriously ill. After many tests and X-rays an operation revealed a malignant tumor that had grown out from the spine and invaded everything.

"It's worse than our worst fears," a doctor told the mother. "There's nothing we can do. We couldn't begin to remove it."

Gabrielle was not told of this and seemed to recover rapidly from her operation. She was taken home to the family's New York apartment to celebrate her tenth birthday.

But a few days later she was ill again and returned to the hospital. There followed weeks of suffering which the girl endured with cheerful courage. For many nights her mother slept at her side to hold her hand and administer drugs when needed.

"Sweet dreams," said Gabrielle to her mother by way of goodnight on the evening of Friday, April 25. The little girl could not speak next day and on Sunday, less than five months after her illness was noticed she died.

A minister read the Twenty-third Psalm as she was buried on a hillside facing the bay in the old Snow cemetery at Truro, Mass.

where the family has a summer home.

Her favorite doll was buried with her.

The author was born in Virginia, Minn., near the Canadian border, and was graduated at Carleton College, Northfield, Minn. She studied drama there and later at the Chekhov Theatre Studio in England. She has acted in off-Broadway plays in New York and in summer theaters. She has written stories, articles, and poems, but "The Story of Gabrielle" is her first book. "The book was written out of a deep need to keep this experience vivid for myself," she explains, "and also to try to convey to family and friends the atmosphere in which we lived during those five months. It wasn't quite the way they imagined it. It was heartbreaking, but so much more."

When Digest editors read it in proof form, they outbid several other publications for the magazine rights and revised their December issue to rush the narrative into print.

Iowa State College researchers have found that adding less than three ounces of phosphorus per day, in the form of dicalcium phosphate, to the present-day recommendations for phosphorus feeding levels boosted average daily gains nearly 15 per cent. A report in the December issue of Successful Farming magazine says feed cost per pound of gain was cut by eight per cent. The extra-phosphorus cattle also yielded more Choice carcasses.

LITTLE FOR US
MEANS MORE FOR YOU

A&P is proud of this very significant fact:
less than a penny of every dollar our customers spend with us is A&P's profit. On the average it amounts to only 8/10 of
ONE CENT!

No wonder more and more people are switching to A&P convinced that such a small profit must mean they receive more food for their money.
